Print & Mail

Backed by 60 years of great customer service and accurate, on-time delivery, NPC prints quality 4-color magazines and newsletters, and provides full-service in-house print and mail services, including a USPS-certified postal facility that produces and mails over 120 million pieces each year!

"Our own processes are even more simplified, and our print and postage costs have been reduced."

Will Haskett
Director of Communications
Phi Kappa Psi

Digital Flipbook

Digital "Flipbook" Publishing transforms your print-ready books, newsletters, catalogs, brochures or magazines into interactive online publications with real page-turning features and complete text-searchable pages.

"Enivation offers a great flipbook service at an extremely competitive rate. Complemented by their thorough and excellent customer service, opting to work with Enivation was a simple decision!"

Nicole Banes
Publications and Communications Manager
Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Archive & Share

Transform your magazines and journals with Enivation's scanning and archiving solution that takes your older, sensitive physical publications and turns them into a fully searchable online digital library. Share your organization's historical information with anyone, anywhere with our hosted Web option.

"The magazines are such a great read, and to be able to share that with our entire membership at the touch of their mouse or keyboard is truly remarkable."

Tristin Bates
Communications Manager
